In 2020, David Chassan took over the direction of the Strategy of 3DS OUTSCALE and joined the Supervisory Board of the company. He is also Secretary General of Hexatrust, a member of the EuroCloud Board of Directors and represents the company within Gaia-X as a founding member.

Let's provide our ecosystem with the highest level of security! For several years now in Europe, we, the players of the digital sector, have been aware that it is essential to put in place a demanding compliance framework to strengthen the trust of citizens, businesses and administrations in the world of digital technology. The exponential growth of data created through new usages accelerates the need for a high-level trust framework capable of guaranteeing the security of data in the cloud. Read the edito
